The Axe

THE Pan-Hellenic Prom was a huge success according to the press-agent stuff, and far be it from us to doubt the statement. We might only mildly suggest, however, that it depends upon the point-of-view. If you regarded the scene, as did the writer, from behind a stack of Petticoats, you will understand the slight trepidation with which every glance was met. In explanation, we could only say that every girl there was a sorority member, and that some cruel person had said that the sorority "digs" were too mean to be funny.

THE joke was on Gamma Eta Zeta in one place. An item in a conspicuous place announced that Helen Hall had been seen picking out her Pi Phi pin last September. It so happens that Helen Hall had been a Chi Omega for some time when this peculiar incident was supposed to have taken place, and had no particular desire to change, even should it be possible. Through some terrible mistake, the name of Helen Hall had been substituted for that of Helen Taylor, about whom the item was originally written.

"YOU Never Can Tell" was presented by the Players' last week as their bid for Dramatic honors. This was a Shaw play (George Bernard not Helen), and was appropriately named.

AN Illinois State Senator said something last week. This statement might be questioned upon the grounds of "no precedent," but proof is at hand. Senator Kessinger declared that solitude, with the opportunity to think, is a thing of the past, that "we have a movie eye, a radio ear, a newspaper brain, and automobile nerves." To those who are interested in modern education, this is a significant sentence. There is no longer such a thing as solitude for most of us. Our lives are too full of a number of things, including classes, fraternity meetings, social engagements, etc., in an endless round, to leave any time for the thing which Universities used to be founded for: the luxury of thought. Life is getting too fast for us, so fast that we are forgetting how to live in our effort to keep up with it. The most crowded life is sometimes starved for an occasional leisure hour and lonely for something besides its outside interests.

CONGRESS has appropriated another sum for the upkeep of Howard University. Congress does not support any other University under private administration; it seems there is an advantage in being a little off-color.

SIX people will compete for the Davis speaking prizes this year. There have been times when only three competed for the prizes, the worst one being awarded the third prize. Those were the days when we could truthfully say to our friends, "You just can't lose, my dear."

THE Senior Prom is to be at the Mayflower. Probably we were misinformed but we were under the impression that after last year's Junior Prom, the University was respectfully requested not to return. The details of the affair seemed not to be available. Anyway, the Pan-Hel Prom was held there, and the Senior Prom is to be also, so we presume there was nothing to it. Or else, the Mayflower has decided that all nice people are not descendants of its namesake's cargo, and that we're not so bad after all.

THE men's rifle team has won the inter-collegiate matches, taking the national championship from Columbia and Minnesota. This is the second time in three years, proving to the skeptical that with proper equipment, G. W. can stand first in sports. It remains only to acquire that equipment in other sports as well as rifle.

MAYFLOWER SCENE OF PAN-HEL PROM LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Trophy Cups Awarded Sorority Winners in Bowling, Basketball and Track

THE PETTICOAT APPEARS

Tupman's Orchestra Holds Forth Late; Plays Song Hits from "Just a Kiss"

More than two hundred couples attended the annual Pan-Hellenic Promenade held at the Mayflower Hotel last Friday night. Tupman's Mayflower orchestra held forth far into the morning and in spite of the heat offered an unusually live program. The playing of one of Jack Hutchins' song hits from the Troubadour musical comedy, "Just a Kiss," the awarding of three trophy cups to the sorority winners in bowling, basketball and track, and the fourth annual appearance of "The Petticoat," satirical sheet, published by Gamma Eta Zeta, honor journalistic sorority, were special features of the dance.

The presentation of the athletic trophies took place during intermission. Kappa Delta was winner of the inter-sorority bowling and track cups while Gamma Beta Pi recaptured the basketball cup. The awards were made by Marion Campbell, president of Pan-Hellenic Association.

Scandal Sheet Out

Promptly at midnight "The Petticoat" appeared. Dancing lost its charm for the time being and everybody swarmed about the door to secure a copy of the paper. Its news stories were crammed with scandal, its "Sassiest" column jammed with startling surprises, and its matrimonial bureau chucked with wit. Sorority skeletons and fraternity pretenses were exposed. Even private individuals did not escape molestation. Many a campus reputation lost its stability and many more "reps" came into being at the hands of the Gamma Eta Zetas.

The honor journalistic sorority has been "petticoating" around for several months. They have been collecting, combining, and concocting with all the brains they could muster. The little yellow sheet is a successful product of their plotting and is quite conspicuous on the campus this week where it is being sold by the members of the sorority.

MEDICAL LAB FINDINGS PUBLISHED IN JOURNAL

Results of Research by Professors and Students of Chemistry Department Rewarded

Two articles from the Department of Chemistry in the Medical School appeared in the March issue of The Journal of Biological Chemistry, official publication of the American Society of Biological Chemists. They contain work done in the chemical laboratory under the direction of Dr. Joseph H. Roe, professor of Chemistry in the Medical School. "A Study of the Molybdenum Oxide Colorimetric Method of Estimation of the Phosphorous Compounds of the Blood" was the result of the collaborative efforts of Dr. Roe, Prof. Oliver J. Irish and James I. Boyd, a senior. The article traces the process from the beginning, pointing out the conditions that must be regulated and the method of procedure, together with the results obtained in the laboratory.

Advance New Method

The second article, "A Colorimetric Method for the Estimation of Blood Calcium," was prepared by Dr. Roe and Bernard S. Kahn, a junior in the Medical School. The principle is stated as the precipitation of calcium as calcium phosphate from an alkalized trichloroacetic acid serum filtrate, estimating it as phosphate by the Benedict and Thelmo molybdenum oxide colorimetric method, slightly modified.

This method is claimed to be very accurate and is a successful micro procedure, being adaptable to much smaller quantities of serum than other methods in use at the present time. The method was explained by "Bernie" before a recent meeting of the G. W. U. Medical Society.

Dr. Roe, whose work in the Medical School chemistry laboratory is of well-known repute, has also been asked by the C. V. Mosby Co. to write a textbook of chemistry for nurses. The request was accepted and Dr. Roe is at work preparing the material for the publication.

GIRLS' GOLF TOURNEY WEEK OF MAY 17TH

The golf tournament for girls is to be held the week of May 17th. All those who are interested in entering should hand in their individual scores, length of time played, number of holes, and name of the links. A silver loving cup is to be presented to the point winner of the tourney.

TENNIS COURT IS BEING MADE ON BACK CAMPUS

Summer School students will have the advantage of a tennis court on the campus. The back campus is being rapidly transformed from a very pretty backyard into a first class tennis court. The court will be run like the municipal courts; "first come first served." A system to reserve the court will probably be worked out later on.

SIGMA CHI LEADING IN FRAT LEAGUE A

Phi Sigma Kappa Leads in League B of Interfraternity Series

S. A. E. WINS FROM T. U. O.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Takes Measure of Kappa Sigma; Theta Deltas Defeat to Acadia

By GEORGE N. GARDNER

Sigma Chi, defeating Delta Tau Delta, took the lead in League B, with Sigma Nu, with whom they had been tied, having no game scheduled. Phi Sigma Kappa took the measure of Kappa Alpha and strengthened their hold on the leadership of League A. In the other games played Sunday Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Theta Upsilon Omega and Sigma Phi Epsilon vanquished Kappa Sigma. Theta Delta Chi forfeited to Acadia.

The Sigma Chi swatters buried the Deltas under an avalanche of sixteen runs, while Russell, Sigma Chi pitcher, just missed shutting out his opponents. The Deltas scored their only run in the fifth inning. Russell faced only twenty-seven men in the seven innings of the game, striking out seven. Three Delta pitchers struck out seven. Batteries were: Sigma Chi, Russell and Alder; Delta Tau Delta, Nicolls and Eberle; Weyson, pitchers and Moore catcher.

Phi Sigs Win Handily

Phi Sigma Kappa had little trouble running up a score of 22 to 6 against Kappa Alpha. K. A. scored first, getting four runs in the first inning; but when the Phi Sigs started around the bases they did not seem to know when to stop, and the adding machine read a score and two over when they finally had to stop for dinner.

Mickey Glover went the route in the box for Phi Sigma Kappa with Harold Stehman receiving. Neville and Davis took turns hurling for K. A. with Wisheart behind the bat.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon ball players fared well in their first completed game of the series, defeating Theta Upsilon Omega 10 to 3 to tie with Sigma Nu for second place in League A. Allhouse and Whyte shone individually, each getting home runs, Allhouse with two men on.

Batteries for Sigma Alpha Epsilon were Thompson and Horgten. Henry Herzog pitched for T. U. O. and Victor Koch caught.

ANNOUNCE SELECTIONS FOR ADVISORY COUNCIL

Prominent and Representative Women Compose Next Year's Aids to Dean Rose

Prominent and representative university women will compose the Women's Advisory Council for 1926-27 according to the announcement made by Dean Rose of appointments for next year.

Members for next year are: Columbian College, seniors, Helen Wheeler, Anita Mueller, Ella April; Juniors, Elizabeth Wiltbank, Eva Pope; sophomores, Mary Lewis Beard; Medical School, Alice Heyl; G. W. Club, Emyrtrude Valden; Sphinx Honor Society, Lonnelle Davison; Gamma Eta Zeta, Frances Randolph; Y. W. C. A., Elsie Talbert. Representatives for the Law School, Teacher's College, and Hour Glass Honor Society will be selected in the near future.

The Women's Advisory Council serves in an advisory capacity to the Dean of Women and has proved most successful in promoting co-ed interests. This year it fostered the Big Sister Movement, so popular with freshmen and upper-class women, and superintended the preparation of the G. W. Handbook. The May Day Fete, which is being given on May 1 in honor of the women athletes, is also under the auspices of the Council.

PROF. DOYLE TO ATTEND FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL

Professor Henry Gratton Doyle left for Charleston, S. C., on Tuesday night, April 27, to attend the annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council to be held in that city on April 28, 29 and 30. Prof. Doyle will represent the American Association of Teachers of Spanish, and will address the group on "Education for Foreign Trade." About fifteen thousand persons, mainly business men interested in export and import trade are expected to attend the convention.

DIONYSIANS STAGE HELLENIC COMEDY TOMORROW NIGHT

Kermit Girdner, Supported by Talented Cast, Plays Lead in "The Frogs"

MUSICAL COMEDY NEXT

Troubadours Putting the Finishing Touches on "Just a Kiss" to Be Given Next Week

By DOROTHY DOUGHERTY

Tomorrow night at 8.30 in the Gymnasium theater, the Dionysians will present their long-anticipated production of Aristophanes' immortal comedy, "The Frogs." The leading role will be interpreted by Kermit Girdner, who is supported by a carefully selected and talented cast.

The Dionysians have been working since last September on this production, and are doing their utmost to make it as nearly perfect as a modern interpretation of a Greek play can be. The details of this burlesque, from costumes to staging and lighting, have been carefully coordinated with the view of putting George Washington University in the front rank of college dramatics.

A distinct and outstanding feature of this production will be the choral dances, the music for which consists of adaptations from Saint Saens Greek opera "Alceste." It is particularly interesting to realize that all of this music is based on old Greek airs.

Miss Brown is Director

The production is under the general direction of Miss Katharine Brown, dramatic coach of the University. The committee in charge of stage setting is composed of Ruth Winter, Kermit Girdner and Tom Bentley.

The leading role, that of Bacchus, patron of the stage, will be interpreted by Kermit Girdner. The comic Xanthias will be played by Leroy Bendheim; Aeschylus by Tom Bentley; and Euripides by Everett Johnston; Aeneas, Joe Milenky; Charon, Katherine Lacy; Hercules, Robert Bunch; Pluto, Fern Henninger; Dead Man, Virginia Strickland; handmaiden of Prosperine, Willie Kennedy; two women butlers, Olga Kephart and Winifred Buckingham. Others in the cast are Helen Bell, Mary Blaisdell, Dorothy Burns, Eleanor Dunne, Dorothy Pyle, Raphaela Schwarz, Lynne Smith, Melania Uhlig, Betty Wiltbank, Ruth Winter, Judson Knappen, Edward Moulton, Allan Oertly and Max Tendler.

"Just a Kiss" Next Week

Announcement has been made from the office of the Director of the Troubadours that "Just a Kiss," the original musical comedy which is to be their contribution to the 1926 Dramatic Festival, will be given Thursday and Friday nights, May 6 and 7, in the Gym. The choruses, three of them, have been selected from our best looking, most graceful and talented co-eds, to say nothing of the fourth chorus composed of girls who all have delightful voices. The turning is said to be beautiful and the dancing and staging both will be of professional exactitude according to those in charge.

Elmer Brown is directing the music for the entire production and Mary Virginia Leckie the dancing choruses. The leads are all being taken by students of the University who have had considerable experience in college or professional dramatics.

"BEST CHERRY TREE EVER PUT OUT" GONE TO PRESS

Final Subscription Drive Announced; Will Be Last Chance to Order Yearbook

The Cherry Tree has gone to press. After several months of effort the editors have completed work on the George Washington University annual. Within ten days a final subscription drive will take place. After the subscription drive is over no copies can be ordered.

The most attractive feature is the frontispiece, which is indeed unusual. It is a Washington view painted by hand in oils. This means that a separate painting must be made for each copy of the "Cherry Tree." Another feature is the section devoted to the six most popular girls. There is an entire new arrangement of sections this year, one being devoted exclusively to the Alumni.

"We sincerely hope," said Stanley J. Tracy, "that we have planned and arranged the best Cherry Tree ever put out, and that it will prove interesting and enjoyable to all of you."

ARTICLE IN LAW REVIEW

Prof. Earl C. Arnold of the George Washington Law School made a recent contribution to the Columbia Law Review, the monthly publication of the law students of Columbia University. His article on "Compensated Surety" appeared in the February issue.

ARCHITECT STUDENTS IN JEFFERSON PAGEANT

Students of the Architecture Department recently sponsored a scene in the Thomas Jefferson Pageant, given in celebration of Jefferson's birthday by the Community Center Department of the Public Schools.

Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, Director of the Pageant, has expressed her appreciation for this service on the part of the students who, she says, "were well received by the audience as soon as they appeared."

ENGINEERS AHEAD IN COLLEGE TILTS

Defeat Columbia College and Chemistry Department Teams

COLUMBIANS COME NEXT

Games Being Played this Week; Coach Crum Working on Schedule For Varsity Nine

With wins over the Columbian College and Chemistry teams chalked up to their credit, the Engineering College baseball nine is leading in the Intra-Mural series. Columbian College is second in the standing, having won one and lost one. The Engineers' team is in last place, having been defeated by both the Engineers and Columbian College.

Monday's game between the Engineers and the Chemists went to the Engineers by a score of 11 to 9. Columbian College tackled the Chemists Wednesday, the latter again losing, this time 14 to 5.

Staging a brilliant ninth-inning rally, the Engineers came from behind to down Columbian College 8 to 7 last Friday, in the best game played so far. Good pitching, timely hitting, and consistent fielding featured Friday's tilt, and it was anybody's game up to the last. Curtis did the hurling for the Surveyors, while Sapp handled the mound duties for Columbian College.

Games are being played this week, and it is expected that the Varsity nine will be picked soon. A great deal of promising material has turned out for the series. Coach "Maud" Crum is now working on a schedule for the Varsity. This will be published as soon as it is completed. The possibility of a trip or so is causing a considerable increase in the interest shown in the sport.

DEBATING TEAMS CLOSE SEASON WITH BANQUET

Men's and Women's Squads Celebrate End of Season at St. James; Elect New Managers

With the debating season practically closed, the Men's and Women's Debating Squads of George Washington met around the festive boards of the St. James Hotel Tuesday evening, April 21, to celebrate the results of the past several months. The banquet was given to the teams by the Debate Council in recognition of the achievements of the members of each team.

Professor Gilbert L. Hall, the Chairman of the Council; Ray C. Crowell, Vice-Chairman, and Manager of Men's Debate; and Miss Vivian Simpson, Secretary-Treasurer, and Manager of Women's Debate arranged the details of the banquet. To the score attending, Mr. Hall and others addressed congratulatory remarks on the work of the teams and the individual members thereof.

Following the banquet, the two teams withdrew to the parlors of the St. James, and elected their managers for next season. John T. Trimble was chosen to lead the Men's Squad while Ruth Newburn was picked as manager of the Women's Squad.

The women's team this season decided upon the novel feature of doing all of its own coaching. The results of such work may be judged from the fact that the girls won the decision in nearly every contest in which they were engaged—a creditable improvement over the accomplishments of the team last year. The men, under the coaching of Louis M. Denit, split the decisions of their schedule, losing as many as they won. However, their program this year included several colleges of renown in debating circles in the country.

The one remaining debate of the season was that held Tuesday night, April 29th, when Gallagher, Seymour and Kirkland met a trio of Maryland University at College Park. The George Washington team contended against the resolution that the House Bill No. 5000, providing for a Department of Education, be passed. At the time this goes to press the outcome is unknown. Last season the team from George Washington out-matched that of Maryland.

SENIORS

Senior rings will be on display in the Hatchet Office from 12.15 to 1.00 and from 4.00 to 5.10 every day this week. Any person with 60 hours credit is permitted to buy one.

Fete To Be Given By Women's Advisory Council For Women Athletes

IS TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Will Award Trophies and Cups to Winners in Athletic Activities in University

By BETTY ARMENTROUT

Invitations for the First Annual May Day Fete, given by the Women's Advisory Council Saturday, May first, in Rock Creek Park, for all women in the University who have distinguished themselves in any phase of athletic activity and for all those Freshmen who have perfect gym attendance, have gone out and are creating quite a stir among the girls of the University.

The fete, which is the first of its kind in the history of the school and which is expected to become a yearly affair on the University calendar, will start at two-thirty o'clock when busses will leave the gymnasium for Rock Creek Park.

Letter awards won by members of girls' varsity basketball, tennis and rifle teams will be made as well as trophies and cups awarded for individual honors during the past year. The Athletic Activity cup, the Beginners Rifle trophy and the Tennis cup are among those to be presented. Later in the afternoon a picnic supper will be served by the members of the Council.

Members of the Student Activity Committee, Dean Rose, Miss Kinnannon, Miss Hopkins and Miss Jones will be numbered among the special guests of the occasion.

The list of the honored guests includes Louise Braswell, Maxine Alverson, Betty Brandenburg, Jessie Booth, Betty Armentrout, Leah Cate, Frances Walker, Elizabeth Decay, Emyrtrude Valden, Elsie Talbert, Abbie Burke, Alice Haines, Julia Denning, Louise Omwake, Jeanne Gravatte, Grace Lear, Helen Miller, Winifred Faunce, Jean Jackson, Elizabeth Hastings, Alice Graham, Margaret Knapp, Mary K. Horn, Helen Humphrey, Estelle Humphrey, Judith Steele, Janice Stockton, Margaret Wheeler, Frances Held, Louise DuBois, Elizabeth Miles and Helen Taylor.

The following ten girls have an honor record in attendance in the weekly Freshman gym classes and for this reason have been included in the list of guests: Elizabeth Drake, Eileen Gardner, Marlon Davis, Bernadine Horn, Mary Horn, Helen Humphrey, Estelle Humphrey, Judith Steele, Janice Stockton and Margaret Wheeler. The Freshman class will be the largest represented with the Junior class representatives being second in number.

The school is looking forward to bright prospects in the field of athletics for next year with so many girls in the University showing keen interest in sports and it is especially noteworthy to look over the records of the various athletic activities and see that so many first year girls are listed in the sports sponsored by the University.

CHAPEL HEARS PREXY ON GEO. WASHINGTON

Wednesday's chapel was made very interesting by President Lewis' talk on George Washington. This was the continuation of Monday's lecture.

Some of the material for the talk was taken from George Washington's diaries. It spoke of the plans of his dream-city, Washington, and the difficulty which attended the buying of the necessary property. The Father of our country was revealed as a farmer whose crops resulting from his scientific methods would rank high even among the immense yields of the Middle Western farms.

The plan of George Washington University as conceived by George Washington was explained by President Lewis.

Very fine photographs and old pictures illustrated the talk throughout.

Senor Eugenio Anzorena, of the Mexican Embassy, discussed the importance of the Spanish language for the youth of North America, at a meeting of El Circulo Espanol Friday, April 23.

JOURNALISM CLASSES

Our contemporary, The Petticoat, published by Gamma Eta Zeta, the Girls' Journalistic Fraternity, and issued at the Pan-Hellenic Prom at the Mayflower last Friday night, struck again the note close to the hearts of all students of the University interested in journalism. The Petticoat made the suggestion that since the administrators of the University found it impossible to establish a School of Journalism here at this time, they at least add a class or two to the already existing opportunities offered along this line.

We want to add our support to this suggestion. It seems a very sound proposition and would be one that would not involve a great deal of financial risk on the part of the University. Furthermore, it would give the administration a better idea of how even further extensions in this field would be accepted by the student body. In this way a class or two a year might be added until there was sufficient work offered here to make the Journalism School and the Journalism degree not a great step into territory unexplored by this University.

With the advantages of establishing further journalism courses clearly apparent, provided the necessary administrative and financial matters concerning it could be worked out, it would appear that this suggestion advocating the establishment of one or two more classes a year in this field would be the logical one to follow in the establishment of a School of Journalism here.

MEN'S TENNIS

Although it is understood that only $100 was appropriated for Men's Tennis by a recent act of special legislation on the part of the Faculty Finance Committee, the men of the University are endeavoring to keep alive the spirit of tennis here, and are to put a team on the field. Such nearby schools that have open dates will be met, and the team will try to borrow courts when matches are held. This, of course, is not a very good state of affairs for such a sport to be in, but those who are interested in keeping tennis spirit alive here until proper facilities for the development of a team can be offered by the University, are to be commended for their efforts.

DRAMATIC COLUMN ECHOES

A movement that has long been needed has been neglected, so far as we can ascertain. Something ought to be done to people who talk during overtures at moving picture theatres.

The few people who have a liking for real music often fail to get a chance at these renditions. They are overcome by the majority, who seem to think the overture is the special time appointed for gossip.

The courtesy of attention during overtures is due musical directors, who have given their time and education in preparation for their art. During the few minutes of each program which they devote to the higher forms of music, they are at least worthy of respectful attention.

Let us hope that students at our school will not be guilty of this discourtesy.

THE DIONYSIANS PRESENT

Aristophanes' "The Frogs," the third event in the Dramatic Festival, will be presented by the Dionysians tomorrow night. This organization is to be commended for bringing to the University an opportunity to see classical drama, which is seldom, if ever, offered on the professional stage. This comedy of Aristophanes is an interesting choice on the part of the Dionysians. One of the earliest and best examples of farce in the history of the drama, it is entertaining reading today. Brought to life on the stage, it should be amusing even to the Philistines, and of decided interest to the student of the past, a past the echo of which resounds in every phase of our modern life.

The Dramatic Festival has offered two significant productions thus far. Student support in this instance leaves much to be desired. Dramatics as a school activity is as important as any and far more worthwhile from a cultural and personality developing standpoint than most others. We do not urge an unpleasant duty, but would suggest that the student body is demonstrating poor taste in not availing itself of worthwhile entertainment at a reasonable rate, while at the same time it could be backing a vital activity.

Julia Denning and Betsy Booth went to Aberdeen, Maryland, yesterday to attend a dance given by the commanding officers of Aberdeen in honor of the first class of West Point.

President Lewis addressed the General Alumni Association at the Hotel Lafayette at the regular monthly meeting last Saturday.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon sent Hilburn Covington and Birch Tennyson as delegates to the annual province convention of the fraternity held April 17 at Walford College, Spartanburg, S. C.

The pledges of Gamma Beta Pi entertained at tea in their rooms last Wednesday, in honor of the pledges of the other sororities on the campus.

Dean Anna L. Rose and Miss Kincannon have had as their house-guests during the past week, Mrs. V. C. Kincannon, of Mississippi, mother of the latter, and Mrs. Edwin Cole, of Pennsylvania, sister of the former. Mrs. Kincannon and Mrs. Cole have been much entertained while here.

The Kappa Delta girls were wearing green and white, their fraternity colors, on April 22, 23 and 24, in honor of the installation of their 60th chapter at the University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.

The pledges of Phi Mu entertained the pledges of the other sororities, Saturday afternoon at a most interesting "rotating bridge." Tables were arranged at the home of three girls, the guests going to each house and later coming to the sorority rooms for tea. This has been one of the most delightful functions given by "goats" for "goats" this year.

Gamma Beta Pi held its formal initiation at the home of Alice Haines on Riggs Place, last Sunday evening. The girls initiated were Abbie Burke, Stella Burke, Winifred Faunce, Eileen Gardner, Alice Graham, Susan Harrison, Elizabeth Jester, Betty Kilbourne, and Catherine Ruth.

Miss Helen Periam entertained last Thursday evening at dinner at the A. A. U. W. Club in honor of Mrs. Edwin Coles, Mrs. V. K. Kincannon, and Mrs. Ross. The decorations were in yellow and lavender with covers laid for sixteen, the guests later attending the production of the G. W. Players.

The Delta Zeta goats gave their annual show on April 20th for the amusement of the active chapter. The entertainment was followed by an informal party, a feature of which was the presentation of a beautiful clock to the chapter by the goats.

The active chapter of Gamma Beta Pi entertained at dinner Monday April 26 in honor of their new initiates. Betty Bradford was toastmistress and among the guests present were Alice Watts Hostetler, Jane Ramey Knox and Hannah Hunt Stokes.

The pledges of Phi Sigma Sigma entertained the members of the sorority at their chapter rooms on April 19.

LITERARY FIGURES PAID HONOR AT FRI. CHAPEL

Two members of the faculty of the University spoke at the Friday chapel on the life of Shakespeare and Cervantes. This was in commemoration of the day of the birth of Shakespeare and of the death of Cervantes. Dean William A. Wilbur spoke on Shakespeare and Professor Henry Grattan Doyle spoke on Cervantes. The life and works of both of these men were reviewed and an explanation of their contribution to modern literature was brought out.

Sigma Phi Epsilon wrested Sunday's game and second place in League B from Kappa Sigma in a contest which, though marred by errors, revealed, nevertheless, some very good baseball talent. The final score was 11 to 7. Eager and Corbin, Sig Eps, rapped out home runs, and Sapp got a homer for Kappa Sigma.

Batteries for S. P. E. were Jean and Heally. Kappa Sigma used two pitchers, Goodiel and Sapp, and three catchers, Sapp, Goodiel and Flaherty.

Theta Delta Chi Fraternity, which has entered no team in the series, forfeited its scheduled game with Acacia. Games scheduled for May 2 are Theta Upsilon Omega vs. Sigma Nu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Delta Tau Delta, Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Acacia, Theta Delta Chi vs. Kappa Sigma and Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Kappa Alpha. Two previously scheduled games remain to be played before the end of the series, the Sigma Chi-Sigma Alpha Epsilon encounter, which was stopped by rain, and the Kappa Sigma-Acacia contest which was postponed.

TRAINING CAMPS TO BECOME ACTIVE JULY 8

Major S. M. Corbett of Medical School Makes Announcement

Citizens' Military Training Camps for Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia will be held from July 8 to August 6, this summer, according to an announcement issued by Major S. M. Corbett, professor of Military Science and Tactics in the Medical School, by Lieutenant-Colonel John Scott of the Washington Units of the Organized Reserves.

The Pennsylvania units for basic and infantry courses will go to Camp Meade, Md., while the basic and infantry courses for the District, Maryland and Virginia will be given at Fort Eustis, Va. The basic and infantry courses are open to all between 17 and 24 years of age, while the more advanced courses are open to those up to 31.

Major Corbett emphasized that the opportunity to become physically fit was a wonderful one, with all expenses paid by the government. According to the statistics published by the War Department 46.8 per cent of American manhood were physically unfit for service in the recent World War without their being aware of any defects. "A man defective physically is handicapped for peace as well as for war." There is also offered a splendid training for better citizenship, improved dependability, initiative and leadership, with increased loyalty to our country and our flag.

COL. COOLIDGE'S DOCTOR WAS G. W. MED GRADUATE

Received Heavy Mail With Suggestions For Treating President's Father

The man who cared for President Coolidge's father during his last illness is an alumnus of George Washington University. Dr. Albert M. Cram, who has sprung suddenly into the limelight because of this attendance upon Colonel Coolidge, graduated from the Medical School in 1912, receiving his degree with distinction.

Thirteen years ago, Dr. Cram took up practice in Bridgewater, Vermont, his native state, on leaving a Washington hospital where he had served as an interne after graduating.

As physician to the father of the President, Dr. Cram has become nationally known, and, to quote one of the many news stories that have appeared about him, "he has paid the penalty of publicity. Few country doctors receive a mail as voluminous as that delivered at his office. Most of it concerns the illness of Colonel Coolidge, correspondents advising him as to treatment of the case and in some instances, sending samples of remedies."

It will be remembered that the rifle team won the Eastern Intercollegiate Rifle Championship in the matches held a week ago in Brooklyn. This is the second time in the three years that there has been such a title that George Washington has won it.

STUDENT WINS BIG PRIZE IN GAME OF WAR HEROES

Ethel M. Wilson Awarded $2,500 By Hearst Newspapers

Twenty-five hundred dollars, representing the first award in the Game of War Heroes, promoted by four of the Hearst Sunday newspapers, was won by Miss Ethel M. Wilson, a student at George Washington University. Miss Wilson's home is Boston, and it was as a reader of the Boston Sunday Advertiser that she entered the contest. At present she is employed in the Bureau of Navigation in Washington, and attends G. W. evening classes.

The contest consisted of a series of pictures of thirty-six famous war heroes with specific information concerning the historical information to be filled in by the contestants. Accuracy and neatness were the deciding factors in awarding the prizes. According to Miss Wilson, plenty of hard work was the main factor in her successful entry.

TRACKMEN WILL MEET C. U. AND GALLAUDET

Dual Match With Naval Academy at Annapolis May 2
Place May 8

Meets with Catholic University and Gallaudet, and possibly an encounter with the Navy are on the varsity track team's schedule for the remaining weeks of the school term. The C. U. meet May 15 and the contest with Gallaudet on May 22 will both be on the opponents' tracks.

Negotiations are under way for a meet with the Navy at Annapolis, which will probably take place May 8. Coach Proby and Manager George Martin are anxious to schedule the meet and are quite sure that arrangements for it can be made.

The squad has been working out nightly at the Georgetown University track. It has been reported that "Bunn" Tolson and Bill Simmons, former track stars, are soon to join the squad.

COLUMBIAN SOCIETY DEBATES PROHIBITION

At the meeting of the Columbian Debating Society on April 18 the repeal of the Prohibition Amendment was debated. Messrs. Levine and Bender took the affirmative, and Messrs. The next debate will be between Mr. Simpson and Mr. Rosenthal on "Resolved that Commissioner Fenning should be impeached."

SPLINTERS FROM SPORTDOM

Bun and Bill Out

Naval Academy Meet

An Athletic Program

By DOMY DOMIGAN

The strenuous exertion of Inter-collegiate athletics has been replaced by interest in recreation with more of a social aspect. As the tennis season progresses, mixed doubles are becoming more and more popular and in a student golf match, it is seldom a stag party that makes up the foursome. And with the warm days of spring, some of the boys are spending their spare moments to paint up that old canoe while others are thinking of their weekly Sunday pilgrimages to the beach. Yet all this time, the coach is wondering why men, with all the skill displayed in their social encounters, can't get enough of the spring maligned out of their system to come out and fill in a needed place on some varsity team.

With track practice being held nightly, Coach Proby announces that if he can keep his men from getting lazy, he sees hope of developing a new track star or two before the season ends. The withdrawal of Anderson from school leaves only two distance men available and since Andy was winner of the Inter-class mile, it is needless to say that his loss will be more than felt. However, the boys are encouraged by reports that Tolson and Simmons will again be with the squad ready to compete in their customary number of events. Bun and Bill have held the captaincy for the '24 and '25 seasons respectively.

With a track appropriation insufficient for a complete schedule, the boys are anxious to show that they are worth a little more for next season by copping the remaining meets. Of course the chief interest centers on May 15 when we meet our old rivals—Catholic U. Just to recall the unpleasant events, we must remember that we lost the Thanksgiving football game and the two basketball encounters to C. U. and we haven't a thing in the way of revenge yet. But ask anyone on the track team. Of course they concede C. U. a few points but you can bet on one thing—if determination has anything to do with it, C. U. isn't going to chalk up any more victories against us this year—at least, not at the expense of the track team.

And then, on the week following, the boys hope—that amid the cheering they will be able to take over the Gallaudet frolle for the trophy cup which is the annual stake. Just what the boys have in store before and after these meets has not been definitely decided. But Manager Martin announces that an open date has been tendered by U. S. Naval Academy for a meet at Annapolis May 8th and since the boys seem quite in favor of the meet, the ratification of Coach Proby is all that is necessary to cinch the affair.

With the end of the year in sight, it is time we began to plan for next season. So far, the football schedule is our only step towards our next year's athletic program. It would seem a wise thing to plan in a systematic way our athletic expenditure for the coming year and let the student know for just who and what he is paying his activities fee. Judging from past experience, such a plan would be worth trying and would give ample opportunity for scrutiny and criticism of the proposed budget rather than the last minute plan with opportunity for the excuse that such sport was inadvertently overlooked or the "wait till next season" idea—the proposed expenditure for the budget having already been exceeded.

Women's sports for the remainder of the year seem confined to Intramural competition. After a successful season in basketball and rifle, the girls now start training for baseball, hockey, tennis, golf and track. Track seems to be the only remaining inter-collegiate competition for the men who, after showing advances in football, basketball, cross country, and the usual success in rifle, now may begin to look to next season for a further advance in athletic achievement.

Last Saturday the Freshmen girls' rifle team scored by a count of 497 to 491 out of a possible 500 over Eastern High School in a shoulder to shoulder match in the G. W. range. This was the first match of the Freshman team and it resulted very well for the first year girls—two girls out of the seven representing George Washington making possible scores.

The Eastern team is unique in that it has no regular coach but in this line one of the members fill the position. Marjory Polson and Frances Heid shot in their first official match with the first making a perfect score. The individual scores of the teams:

PROF. E. A. HILL AUTHOR OF SCIENTIFIC ARTICLE

A scientific article of importance has been recently published in the Journal of the American Chemical Association as a contribution from the laboratory of Physical Chemistry of the George Washington University. The author of the article is Professor Edwin A. Hill, of the Department of Chemistry.

In it Prof. Hill describes a new method for the measurement, under the microscope, of solid crystal angles, and of the slope angles of crystal faces, by the use of the ordinary eye piece micrometer disks and the graduations of the fine adjustment screw.

NAMED ON COMMITTEE

Professor DeWitt C. Croissant was made a member of the Campaign Committee for raising of funds for the Foreign Service School to be established in the University when he attended a meeting of the Trustees of the Educational Foundation of the National League of Masonic Clubs in Boston, March 27. Mr. John Boey, of Hackensack, N. J., and Mr. Colyer, of New York were chosen the other members of the Campaign Committee.

FIRST MATCHES OF FRAT SERIES OVER

Inclement Weather and Lack of Courts Throws Tournament
Week Late

FIVE TEAMS ELIMINATED

Method to Speed Up the Remaining Matches to Be Worked Out in Near Future

The first series of the interfraternity tennis tournament was completed this week eliminating five fraternities from the list of contenders. Inclement weather and the fact that the teams were unable to obtain courts prevented them from playing off the second series that should have been finished last Sunday.

Sigma Chi had little difficulty disposing of Kappa Sigma, winning the first three matches in short order. Slicker of Sigma Chi defeated Riggs, Kappa Sigma, 7-5 6-4; Emms, Sigma Chi, won easily from Sapp, Kappa Sigma, 6-1 6-3; while in the doubles Emms and Russel, Sigma Chi, defeated Richardson and Sapp, Kappa Sigma, 6-1 6-4.

Kappa Alpha did not offer much resistance to Delta Tau Delta who won both singles and the doubles. Abrams of the Delta won from Tilton, Kappa Alpha, 6-0 6-2; Monstream, Delta Tau Delta, defeated Egger, Kappa Alpha, 6-2 6-4. In the doubles Eckles and Nickols easily won from Bradley and Egger, Kappa Alpha, 6-4 6-2.

P. S. K. Defeats S. P. E.

Phi Sigma Kappa defeated S. P. E. winning the right to play Sigma Nu in the semi-finals. Detweiler, Phi Sigma Kappa, defeated Prevost, S. P. E., 5-7 6-1 6-3; Niebell, Phi Sigma Kappa, won from Simpson, S. P. E., 6-2 6-3; Niebell and Detweiler teamed up to defeat Prevost and Simpson in the doubles 6-4 6-8.

In the second series Phi Sigma Kappa has played one doubles with Sigma Nu, Niebell and Detweiler defeating Kendall and Harper, Sigma Nu, 9-7 6-4. Delta Tau Delta and Theta Delta Chi have also played off three games. Delta Tau Delta won two and Theta Delta Chi one. Abrams, Delta Tau Delta, set Wemple, Theta Delta Chi, back, winning 6-1 6-0; Battle, Theta Delta Chi, defeated Monstream, Delta Tau Delta, 6-2 6-4; Eckles, Delta Tau Delta, won from Brown, Theta Delta Chi, 7-5 6-3.

Due to weather conditions and the inability of some of the players to arrange a time for their matches the tournament will not be finished on time if the present plan is maintained. One week has already been lost while the first series of the bracket was being worked off. As there are two more series before the finals some method will probably be worked out so as to enable the players to complete the tournament before examinations begin.

MERMAIDS TO COMPETE IN SWIMMING PRELIMS

Winners to Fight It Out May 5 for Place on Varsity Team

Preliminaries of the swimming meet will be held today at the Y. W. C. A. pool in order to choose the fastest swimmers from the fifty entrants. The swimmers who win in the preliminary events will compete against each other in the finals of the meet which is to be held Wednesday, May 5. The Freshmen girls have evinced the most interest and enthusiasm although the sport has proved very popular, particularly with the intermediate class of swimmers. No spectators will be allowed at the preliminary events and only women at the finals. Admission will not be charged. The best swimmers will be selected to compete with the Capitol Athletic Club team on May 19.

MEN'S TENNIS TEAM IS TO BE FORMED AT ONCE

Small Appropriation Obtained; Men to Meet Teams in this Vicinity in Matches

More than twenty men attended the first meeting of the men's tennis team, held in Corcoran Hall last Thursday night. A small appropriation has been obtained from the activity fund, and with this those interested in the sport will endeavor to get matches with schools in the District and possibly with Maryland, St. Johns, Johns Hopkins and other schools in this vicinity.

Jack Rutley, who was elected captain at the close of last season, will have charge of the team. It is understood that Dean Miller, who has been tennis coach for several years, will render some coaching service in an unofficial way.

Courts formerly used by the University at 25th and N Streets have been torn up and an apartment house is now being built there. This will make it necessary for the men to practice on the public courts, while courts will be borrowed from tennis clubs of the city when matches are held.

The men will be arranged according to a tentative rating now being compiled by the manager from information available on questionnaires signed by the men at the meeting. After this rating is published other men may get on the team by challenging those ahead of them.

Among the men at the first meeting who are said to have had considerable tennis experience are Abrams, Detweiler, Durran, Slicker, Niebel, Emms and Rutley. Anyone interested in trying for the team should get in touch with Jack Rutley immediately. He can be reached at the Phi Sigma Kappa house, 1813 Columbia Road, after 7:30 p. m. any evening. The phone number is Columbia 7127.

When it's a rainy night—and with three crafty bridge players your luck is running wild
—have a Camel!

WHEN the dark skies are pouring rain outside.
And fickle fate deals you hands at bridge that you play with consummate skill—have a Camel!

For Camel is the silent partner that helps every deserving player win his game. Camels never hurt or tire the taste, never leave a trace of cigarette after-taste. Regardless of the gold you spend,
you'll never get choicer tobaccos than those rolled into Camels.

So this evening as you
ply your unerring skill, evoke then the mellow-

came from a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Camels represent the utmost in cigarette quality. The choicest of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos are blended into Camels by master blenders and the finest of French cigarette

FORMER G. W. U. CO-ED AUTHOR OF NEW NOVEL

Lella Warren, Author of "White Thorn," Graduated from G. W. U. in 1921

Lella Warren Spanogle, writing under her maiden name, Lella Warren, George Washington University's latest claim to fame, has stepped into the public spotlight by means of her novel "White Thorn," accepted for publication by Simons and Shuster of New York. It is the only novel this firm is to put out for the 1926 fall trade.

While at George Washington Lella Warren specialized in English, being a student instructor for three years. After receiving an A. B. with the class of 1921, she took graduate courses in the same department, but never completed her master's.

She was also very prominent in school activities, being vice-president of her class in both her Freshman and Senior years; a member of the old Student Council for two years; a member of both Junior and Senior Week Committees of her class, as well as less important class committees; and was, in her final year, the president of her sorority, Chi Omega, and president of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

"THE STYX," NEW MEN'S ORGANIZATION, FORMED

Expect to Make Onslaught on Golf and Tennis

Official University recognition was granted the past week to "The Styx," a social organization of young men. In addition to their primary purpose of social activities, the summer diversion of the new body has been rumored as being a terrific onslaught on the two neglected sports of G. W. U., golf and tennis. Expecting to become eventually near-champs along these lines, a drive for a greater interest in these sports will be instituted by "Styx" in the fall term of 1926.

"The Styx" was organized in the earlier part of the school year, has spent the winter months in social activities and has now unearthed the golf bags and "sticks," tearing up the turf of East Potomac and Rock Creek. Officers of the "Styx" are President, Don Moody; Vice President, Charles Fleck; Secretary-Treasurer, Kenneth Years. Other members are James Fleck, Allen Oertly, Wentworth Clapham, Joe Bowman, Tom Bentley, and J. B. Pool.

Recognition came as a result of the action of the Faculty Committee on Social Relations.

PHI ALPHA DELTA HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The annual election of officers of John Jay Chapter, Phi Alpha Delta Law fraternity was held Thursday, April 22, in Stockton Hall. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: I. R. Stewart, Justice; Charles R. Grunz, Vice-Justice; Cameron Sherwood, Clerk; Francis E. Van Alstine, Treasurer; and R. B. McKnight, Marshall. J. Nicholas Petty will represent the fraternity on the Interfraternity Council.

About thirty members and guests attended the monthly banquet of the chapter at the Cafe Pierre on April 16. The guest of honor was Lieutenant Mose Byington, who was the winner of the Phi Alpha Delta prize for the year 1924-25, which consists of a set of Wigmore on Evidence.

Dr. Hector G. Spaulding gave an interesting lecture on the subject of Administrative Law. Miss Elizabeth Stewart rendered several vocal selections accompanied on the piano by Mr. Burrus Williams. Mr. George Wheelock also entertained with a variety of jokes and selections from Shakespeare.

MISS SHAW APPOINTED

At a meeting of the Faculty Committee on Student Activities on April 20, Miss Helen Shaw was appointed a member of the editorial board of the Hatchet for the rest of the academic year, says an official communication from Prof. H. G. Doyle, chairman, Publications Council. Miss Shaw has been an acting member of the editorial board for the past four weeks.

The National Players are giving Rida Johnson Young's comedy, "Little Old New York," which harks way back to the time when all the town cut-ups used to congregate in front of the drug emporium and experience a real kick whenever a girl passed by whose skirts were over six inches from the ground. Them was the days!

PALACE

To pound out a coherent and intelligent review of the average moving picture in two hundred words, as we do in this column, is no cinch. Therefore I deserve a pedestrian statue just abast of Corcoran Hall for attempting to size up "Brown of Harvard," this week's feature at the Palace, which concerns college, and should have a long psychological discussion here.

However, suffice it to say that the film presents an admirable, wholly American, and entertaining portrait of the boobishness prevalent at our institutions of the alleged higher learning. It concerns a typical latter-day bullying and wise-cracking collegiate freshman at dear old Harvard, who spends his time seducing neighboring professor's daughters, ridiculing everyone but himself, and going out for crew in order to get behind the school and PUSH. Naturally, our hero turns out very pure and humble in the end, but still the characterization as a whole, excellently done by William Haines, is authentic.

The picture suffers from a trite plot, and several other matters, but I heartily recommend it to our lovely but leony sorority girls, he men, and students of the pathology of college life.

Short films augment the feature.

ROBACCIA.

METROPOLITAN

The immortal "Kiki" has come to the screen at the Metropolitan this week with Norma Talmadge in the title role. Many and dire have been the prophecies about Our Norma in the part made famous by Lenore Ulric. Personally I felt that she would do it well, but would have chosen the Gloria Swanson of "Zaza" (before she became the Marquise and fat), as more suited for the part. Be that as it may, Norma does it very adequately, a little refined, but who are we, standing for the uplift of the "drammer," to object to that. Ronald Colman is fascinating, as ever, in the support.

There are the usual movie changes in story; some directed toward purity, others merely arbitrary. "Kiki," a product of the Paris streets, yet pure, installs herself in the apartment of a Parisian theatrical manager, also pure. How she manages to stay in his home and storm her way into his heart may be learned at the dear old Met (free advertising, N. B., Mr. Crandall). The Sunday afternoon audience was large and appreciative, so I feel safe in recommending the picture for your edification.

The usual supplementary features and the overture from "Wildflower" complete a delightful bill.

CAMPUS CRITIQUES

The G. W. Players presented "You Never Can Tell," a comedy by George Bernard Shaw, Thursday night, at the Gymnasium Theatre.

The Players, in choosing their production for the Dramatic Festival, could have made no better choice than Shaw, and of his works could have chosen none better than "You Never Can Tell"; it is clever and has lots of juicy roles, with only one or two small parts.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the production was the ease of hearing and the "savoir faire" of the cast. The casting, by the way, did credit to Dave Belasco himself. In going to most home talent things I spend half the evening feeling sorry for the actors, but I had occasion only once or twice to sympathize with some of the cast; the rest of the time I was wondering how they did it.

FINAL REPORT MADE ON JUNIOR WEEK FINANCES

Deficit of $386.81 Shown in Report Made by Faculty Committee on Social Relations

A final report on the financing of Junior Week, embracing reports on the Prom, the Play, and the Reception, and showing a deficit of $386.81 has been compiled by the Faculty Committee on Social Relations, of which Prof. Doyle, Adviser to Men's Organizations, and Dean Rose, Adviser to Women's Organizations, are chairmen.

Only 165 tickets for the Prom were sold, whereas a sale of 400 had been counted on. This caused a loss of $218.25 on the Prom alone. The Reception and the Play, which the expected surplus receipts from the Prom were to have financed, resulted in the additional deficit of $174.06, making the total deficit $386.81. Philip, the twin, gave the most finished performances. It is hard to decide between them, although Tender's was perhaps the meatier part. The two most difficult roles, Fergus Crampton, by Pern Henninger, and William the waiter, by Vincent G. Stubbs, were extremely well done, and these gentlemen possibly deserve the laurels for that reason. Wroe Alderson rather spoiled an otherwise impressive performance as Bohun, Q. C., by the amateurish breach of forgetting his lines. No apology need be made for Morris Larsen, who acquitted himself remarkably well as Finch McComas after three days' rehearsal. He understudied Edward B. Moulton, who was unable to assume his role due to illness.

Mary Blaisdell, as Mrs. Clandon, was dignity itself, and played her part smoothly. Betty Kilbourne was a very charming, if not emotional, Gloria, and Marie Didden carried the role of the other twin, Dolly, with her customary sparkle. Maxine de Silvia left nothing to be desired as the maid. Special mention is due the production staff, the stage hands, and the coach, Miss Brown, whose efforts were largely responsible for the smoothest presentation that campus theatre-goers have seen this year.

So far as the cup is concerned, I might say that the Players appear to be leading by about three plays, and if I may be permitted to wax editorial, I think the efforts of the Dramatic Association deserves far better support from the students.

ELBERT.

R. O. T. C. MEN NOT TO GET MILITARY LEAVE

Members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps of the Medical School who hold government positions but who must go to camp this summer may not do so on government time with pay, at least in the Post Office Department, according to the conditions set down in a letter recently received by Major S. M. Corbett from Postmaster General New.

Quoting the letter in part, the Postmaster General states that any employees of the Post Office Department "may be excused for such training, on annual leave, with pay, if they have such leave accruing to them, or on leave of absence without pay, if their services can be spared."

yourself with the degree of P. A.

THAT means "Pipa Amoroso" in the Latin, or "pipe-lover" in plain campus English. P. A. has certainly endeared a pipe to more men than any other letters in the smoke-alphabet. Because Prince Albert lets a fellow smoke all he wants to—and makes him want to!

Cool as the stare of a marble Venus. Sweet as the approach of vacation. Fragrant as spring blossoms. Think up your own similes, Fellows. You will when you pick P. A. and a jimmy-pipe for permanent roommates. Prince Albert is great tobacco, and that's not blah.

Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Fill the bowl of that old jimmy-pipe to the brim and borrow a match. Then you're set for some great smoke-sessions, as sure as you're a foot high.
